

AEIOU 2017 PARENT WORKSHOP SERIES

Calling all families!

Our next centre workshop is communication in the home environment

Our AEIOU workshops series is designed to provide you with the evidence behind our program, as well as practical tips and strategies to use at home. In this workshop, attendees will learn:

- ✓ The typical development of spoken language
- ✓ The typical development of comprehension of language
- ✓ How this looks for children with autism
- ✓ The implications of this in terms of selecting goals to work on

Date: Thursday 2 November, 2017

Time: 9.00am – 11.00am

Check out our blog on the AEIOU website for more information:
