

AEIOU Foundation Workshop:

For parents, educators, and health professionals

FREE!

Supporting children with autism and their challenging behaviours & How the NDIS is funding early intervention

Tuesday 14 November

Two sessions available to choose from 9.30am or 6.00pm

- Do you want to better understand and support children with autism?
- Would you like information on how to deal with challenging behaviours?
- Are you informed on how the NDIS can fund early intervention programs?

Join AEIOU Foundation for a free 90 minute workshop which will help you gain an understanding of the functions of behaviour and learn tips and techniques to assist with challenging behaviours.

Information about how AEIOU Foundation's early intervention program for children with autism can be funded through the NDIS will also be provided.

This event is suitable for any person supporting young children with an autism diagnosis in a home, educational or healthcare setting.

Venue: Springfield Lakes Community Centre
53 Springfield Lakes Boulevard, Springfield Lakes

Registration

Registration is essential. Please RSVP with the session of your choice to Louise Nasternak on 3381 8767 or email camira@aeiou.org.au.

Meet our Presenters

Anna Brodie is AEIOU Foundation's Program Manager, based at the Camira centre.

With over four years of autism-specific experience, Anna specialises in behaviour management. Anna is driven to provide training and support to therapists at AEIOU Foundation.

She is also passionate about implementing intervention based on the science of behaviour analysis and providing education on the fantastic and effective outcomes this approach facilitates.

Katrina Ives is AEIOU Foundation's NDIS specialist, supporting families who have a young child with autism to navigate the Scheme and access funding for reasonable and necessary supports.

Katrina has been part of AEIOU's team since 2010 in a similar capacity, assisting and advocating for families prior to and during their enrolment in the Foundation's early intervention service.

With a background in finance and the NGO sector, Katrina is able to provide practical, caring advice during the early years of an autism diagnosis.
