

AEIOU Foundation Workshop:

For parents, educators, and health professionals

FREE!

Supporting children with autism and & how the NDIS is funding early intervention

Tuesday 20 March, 9.00am

- Do you want to better understand and support children with autism?
- Are you equipped to manage challenging behaviours?
- Are you informed on how the NDIS can fund early intervention?

Join AEIOU Foundation for a free 90-minute workshop which will help you gain an understanding of the functions of behaviour and learn tips and techniques to assist with challenging behaviours.

Information about how AEIOU Foundation's program can be funded through the NDIS will also be provided.

This event is suitable for any person supporting young children with an autism diagnosis in a home, educational or healthcare setting.

Meet our Presenters

Diane Keating is a Program Coordinator and Board Certified Behaviour Analyst (BCBA) at AEIOU Foundation. Di holds a Bachelor degree in Psychology (honours), with a Masters in Applied Behaviour Analysis. Before joining AEIOU in 2014, Di worked in centre and home based programs across Ireland, Kuwait and Australia, providing Early Intensive Behaviour Intervention (EIBI) services. The joy of teaching children life-changing skills has kept her in this industry for more than 10 years.

Diane has gained valuable insight and understanding of the National Disability Insurance Scheme in relation to early intervention.

Katrina Ives is AEIOU Foundation's NDIS specialist, supporting families who have a young child with autism to navigate the Scheme and access funding for reasonable and necessary supports.

Katrina has been part of AEIOU's team since 2010 in a similar capacity, assisting and advocating for families prior to and during their enrolment in the Foundation's early intervention service.

With a background in finance and the NGO sector, Katrina is able to provide practical, caring advice during the early years of an autism diagnosis.
