

AEIOU 2017 PARENT WORKSHOP SERIES

CALLING ALL FAMILIES!

Our next centre workshop is Helping your child with Play

Our AEIOU workshop series is designed to provide you with the evidence behind our program, as well as practical tips and strategies to use at home.

In this workshop, attendees will learn:

- ✓ different types of play, from functional play, to pretend play, to social play
- ✓ strategies for teaching your child to play for longer periods of time and with a wider variety of toys and play themes
- ✓ how to identify and build on your child's current interests and abilities.

You will also have the opportunity to ask questions and develop a plan for working with your child at home.

Date: Friday 8 September

Time: 8:00am

Check out our video (Part 8: Helping your child make friends) on the AEIOU website for more information: <https://aeiou.org.au/autism-the-early-years>

RSVP to Centre Manager Lauren Reddington-Smith on 5618 5888 or email goldcoast@aeiou.org.au. Please note, we do request alternative arrangements be made for any children during these sessions.
