MEDIA ALERT

Musos suit up for Triffid jam

By day, they shake the corporate world, and by night, they rock the Brisbane music scene. Jurassic Jam, now in its fourth year, will bring eight local bands together to turn up the heat at The Triffid on Saturday 1 September.

Not just a reunion for the gifted businessmen and musicians (think: CEOs, lawyers, architects, accountants and company directors), it's an opportunity to raise funds for AEIOU Foundation for children with autism; adding to the $100,000 generated from the annual event.

AEIOU CEO Alan Smith said the event had grown significantly over the past three years, with its popularity demonstrated by the sell-out crowds.

"Not only is Jurassic Jam a fantastic night of live music, but we're very fortunate that it has a strong philanthropic focus," he said.

"AEIOU Foundation has long enjoyed the support of Scott and Mary-Jeanne Hutchinson, landlords of The Triffid, and as an organisation we're immensely grateful that they're always looking for exciting ways to fundraise and bring awareness, while ensuring everyone has a blast.

"If you haven't already bought your ticket, I encourage you to take a trip down memory with arguably Brisbane's best cover bands, all the while supporting valuable early intervention for children with autism."

Jurassic Jam IV starts at 2pm at The Triffid, 9 Stratton Street, Newstead. The line-up consists of: The Hanovers | Jump the Shark | Shag Rock | Roger The Cabin Boy | The Manilows | The Vinyl Frontier | Mardi Wilson | Rick Hopkins.

Tickets are $45.30 and available online through oztix, with the event strictly 18+. All proceeds will go to AEIOU Foundation to support early intervention for children with autism. Visit thetriffid.com.au for more details.
